Objective
The annual conference aims at keeping employment and labour law practitioners up-to-date by providing an overview of the latest policy developments, legislative initiatives and case law in this field.

Who should attend?
This conference is aimed at lawyers specialised in employment and labour law.

You will learn…
- About the current situation of atypical work in the EU and the particular challenges they raise.
- the state of play of recent legislative and social policy developments at EU level, in particular concerning a European Labour Authority and the Directive on predictable and transparent working conditions.
- what are the main elements of the new Posting of Workers Directive which needs to be implemented by July 2020.
- what will Brexit mean for the free movement of workers between the UK and the EU.
- how the CJEU has interpreted key provisions in labour law directives in recent judgments, in particular in areas such as fixed-term work, working time, non-discrimination and transfer of undertakings.

What participants liked in 2018
“High quality and professionalism of the speakers”
“The topics were generally very interesting and useful for my daily work!”
“ERA provides a lot of up to date information in this conference. It keeps me updated on the most recent judgements and proposals”
“This event is targeting people with expertise in Labour Law from different countries.”
“Excellent organization”
